

COOPERATIVE FAMILY

- consists of nonrelated people who get together to rear their children in one household
- share living expenses, household and responsibilities of caring for the children
- they help each other as in an extended family